

Christopher J. Austin

Christopher Austin built his practice at Rudman Winchell by representing clients in various real estate and commercial transactions. His practice focuses on real estate, commercial lending, and corporate matters. It consists of representing and advising individual, corporate, and municipal clients on matters relating to purchasing and financing commercial properties, condominiums, title insurance, commercial leases, foreclosures of real property, easements, mergers, acquisitions, corporate formation, and governance.